(i) international relay service licence.

(2) Every person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this section and on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars in respect of each day on which such offence is committed or in default thereof to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months.

4. [Repealed by Act 43 of 1995].

4. [Repealed by Act 43 of 1995]

5. [Repealed by Act 43 of 1995].

5. [Repealed by Act 43 of 1995]

6. Licence may be exclusive or non-exclusive.

6. (1) Any broadcasting licence may, subject to the provisions of this section, be either a non-exclusive or an exclusive -

(a) sound broadcasting licence; or

(b) television broadcasting licence; or

(c) sound and television broadcasting licence.

(2) Every broadcasting licence shall authorize the holder thereof during such period as such licence remains in force to erect, establish, maintain and operate such broadcasting apparatus of every description as may be necessary to enable the holder thereof fully and effectually to engage in broadcasting in accordance with the terms of his licence.

(3) Every non-exclusive broadcasting licence shall authorize the holder thereof during such period as the licence remains in force to engage in broadcasting concurrently with the holder of any other broadcasting licence under this Act.

(4) Every exclusive sound broadcasting licence shall authorize the holder thereof during such period as such licence remains in force to engage in broadcasting to the exclusion of all other persons except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) and subsection (6).

(5) No non-exclusive sound broadcasting licence shall be granted at any time when there is in force any applicable exclusive sound broadcasting licence unless either-

(a) the holder of such applicable exclusive sound broadcasting licence notifies the Minister in writing of his consent to the grant of such non-exclusive sound broadcasting licence; or

(b) such non-exclusive sound broadcasting licence contains a term that the holder thereof shall not engage in sound broadcasting until such time as such exclusive sound broadcasting licence has ceased to be in force or the holder thereof has notified the Minister in writing of his consent to the holder of such non-exclusive sound broadcasting licence engaging in sound broadcasting.

(6) No exclusive sound broadcasting licence shall be granted at any time when there is in force any non-exclusive sound broadcasting licence unless such exclusive licence contains a term that it shall take effect as a non-exclusive sound broadcasting licence until such time as all non-exclusive sound broadcasting licences in force at the date of the grant of such exclusive sound broadcasting licence shall have ceased to be in force or shall have become vested in the holder of such exclusive sound broadcasting licence.

(7) The provisions of subsections (4), (5) and (6) shall have effect as respects exclusive television broadcasting licences and non-exclusive television broadcasting licences in like manner as they have effect as respects exclusive sound broadcasting licences and non-exclusive sound broadcasting licences.

(8) Subject to the provisions of this section, an exclusive sound broadcasting licence may be granted notwithstanding that there is in force an exclusive television broadcasting licence; and an exclusive television broadcasting licence may be granted notwithstanding that there is in force an exclusive a sound broadcasting licence.

7. Unlawful interference with cable wire.

7. Every person who unlawfully and maliciously or fraudulently cuts, injures, taps or interferes with any cable or wire connected with or used in connection with any broadcasting apparatus or other apparatus or equipment utilized for broadcasting by the holder of a broadcasting licence granted under this Act or for broadcasting by the holder of an international relay service licence in accordance with the terms of such licence shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years.

PART III Radio Re-Diffusion

8. Control of radio re-diffusion.

8. (1) No person shall establish, maintain or operate in Jamaica any radio rediffusion system except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence granted under this Act.

(2) Every person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this section and shall be liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months in respect of each day on which such offence is committed.

9. [Repealed by Act 43 of 1995].

9. [Repealed by Act 43 of 1995].

10. [Repealed by Act 43 of 1995].

10. [Repealed by Act 43 of 1995].

11. Unlawful interference with re-diffusion system.

11. Every person who unlawfully and maliciously or fraudulently cuts, injures, taps or connects any wired extension or apparatus or hearing device to or otherwise interferes with any feeder wiring or high level link wiring or any wiring to or on or in any premises or any other wiring or cable or any insulator or support for wiring or any pole or apparatus or loudspeaker or transformer or other part of any radio rediffusion system operated by the holder of a licence under this Part in accordance with the terms of such licence shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years.

PART IIIA Subscriber Television Service and Independent Programme Providers

11A. Licence required for subscriber television operator and independent programme provider.

11A. (1) No person shall-

- (a) establish, maintain or operate a subscriber television service; or
- (b) operate as an independent programme provider, except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence granted under this Act.

(2) Every person who contravene the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this section and shall be liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) Where a person has been convicted of an offence under subsection (2), the Court may, in addition to any other penalty, order that any equipment used in committing the offence be forfeited to the Crown.

11B. Person eligible for licence to operate subscriber television service.

11B. (1) A company referred to in subsection (2) shall be eligible to apply for a licence-

- (a) to operate a subscriber television service; and
- (b) to operate as an independent programme provider.

(2) A company mentioned in sub-section (1) is a company which -

- (a) is incorporated in Jamaica or any other Member State; and
- (b) is controlled by persons who are nationals of Jamaica or another Member State;

(3) Any company which -

- (a) provides telecommunication service and has a monopoly in any area of that service; or
- (b) is an approved organization as defined in section 2 of The Office of Utility Regulation Act, shall not be eligible to apply for or be granted any licence to operate subscriber television service.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2) (b) "control" in relation to a company means the power of a person to secure by means of the holding of shares or the possession of voting power in or in relation to that company, or by any agreement or by virtue of any other powers conferred by the articles of incorporation or other document regulating the company, that the affairs of the company are conducted in accordance with the wishes of that person.

11C. Offences.

11C. (1) A person who knowingly subscribes to subscriber television service supplied by a person who is not licensed to operate such service commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Every person who unlawful and maliciously or fraudulently -

(a) cuts, injures, taps or interferes with any cable or wire connected with any equipment or apparatus; or

(b) interferes with any wireless sign, utilized for providing subscriber television service commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

PART IIIB Licences

11D. Application for licences.

11D. (1) Every person who is desirous of -

(a) engaging in commercial broadcasting; or

(b) establishing, maintaining or operating a radio re-diffusion system shall make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form for a licence.

(2) A company referred to in section 11B (1) which is desirous of offering sub-scriber television service shall make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form for -

(a) a subscriber television service (wired) licence;

(b) a subscriber television service (wireless) licence; or

(c) a special subscriber television service licence.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a person who is desirous of providing non-commercial broadcasting services shall make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form for one of the following licences-

(a) an international relay service licence;

(b) a public service: non-commercial islandwide licence; or

(c) a public service: noncommercial limited area licence.

(4) A company referred to in section 11 B (1) which is desirous of operating as an independent programme provider shall make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form for a licence.

(5) A person who is desirous of providing independent local content to any subscriber television service shall make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form, for an independent programme provider licence or an independent programme provider (subscription only) licence.

(6) A subscriber television operator who provides, or intends to provide on a non-commercial basis, local programming on dedicated channels located on his subscriber television service shall make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form for registration-

(a) as a subscriber television programme provider; and

(b) of the relevant channels.

(7) A subscriber television operator who provides, or intends to provide on a commercial basis, local content on dedicated channels, whether or not such channels are located on his, or any other subscriber television service (with the exception of one community access channel) shall make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form for an independent programme provider licence or an independent programme provider (subscription only) licence.

(8) A person who is desirous of offering an island wide subscriber television service shall make an application to the Minister in the prescribed form for a special subscriber television licence.

(9) An application under this section shall be accompanied by the prescribed application fee.

11E. Procedure relating to application for licence.

11E. (1) The Commission shall process applications for licences and registration under this Act and shall make such recommendation to the Minister in relation thereto as it thinks fit.

(2) For the purposes of making a recommendation under subsection (1) the Commission -

(a) shall determine whether or not the applicant satisfies the prescribed requirements for-

- (i) commercial or non-commercial broadcasting;
 - (ii) radio re-diffusion;
 - (iii) operation of a subscriber television service;
 - (iv) operation as an independent programme provider; or
 - (v) registration as a subscriber television programme provider,
- as the case may be;

(b) may, if it thinks necessary, hear oral submissions from the applicant.

11F. Grant or refusal etc. of licence or registration.

11F. (1) The Minister, on receipt of a recommendation under section 11E (1), may -

(a) grant a licence or issue a certificate of registration (as the case may require) on such terms and subject to such conditions as he thinks fit;

(b) refer the recommendation back to the Commission for further consideration; or

(c) refuse to grant the licence or issue a certificate of registration (as the case may require).

(2) Where the Minister grants a licence or issue a certificate of registration under subsection (1), the applicant shall be notified in writing forthwith and the licence or certificate (as the case may require) shall be issued to the applicant upon payment by him to the Commission of the prescribed fee.

(3) Where the Minister decides to refuse to grant a licence or issue a certificate of registration under subsection (1) he shall, within thirty days of that decision, notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for such refusal.

(4) An applicant may, in writing within fourteen days after receipt of such notification request the Minister to hear him in respect of the application and the Minister shall hear any applicant who so requests.

(5) After hearing an applicant the Minister may make such decision as he thinks fit.

(6) A licensee may, within a period of six months before the expiry of his licence, make an application in the prescribed form to the Minister for a renewal of the licence and the application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(7) The provisions of section 11E and subsections (1) to (5) of this section shall apply to an application for the renewal of a licence.

11G. Terms of licences.

11G. (1) The provisions of section 6 shall apply to every broadcasting licence granted under this Act and every such licence shall -

(a) authorize the holder thereof to establish, maintain and operate a transmitting station and to engage in broadcasting;

(b) specify the type of broadcasting to which it relates; and subject to section 22, be valid for such period as may be specified in the licence.

(2) Every licence to establish, maintain or operate a radio re-diffusion system shall, subject to section 22, be valid for such period as may be specified therein and -

(a) shall specify the area in which such system may be established;

(b) may be either a non-exclusive radio re-diffusion licence or an exclusive radio re-diffusion licence, as the case may be.

(3) Every licence granted in respect of subscriber television service, an independent programme provider, an independent programme provider (subscription only) or a subscriber television programme provider shall, subject to section 22, be valid for a period of six years or such longer period as the Minister may determine, on the advice of the Commission that such longer period is justifiable.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), it shall be a term of every licence granted under this Act that the licensee shall comply with such terms and conditions as may be specified therein.

“(4A) Every international relay service licence shall, subject to section 22-

(a) be valid for a period of six years;

(b) be non-transferrable; and

(c) be subject to cancellation at the direction of the Minister in the national interest.

(4B) It shall be a term of every international relay service licence that the licensee shall

(a) pay the prescribed licence fee to the Commission forthwith upon the grant of the licence thereafter, while the licence continues in force, annually on or before each anniversary of such grant;

(b) forthwith upon any change in its membership, notify the Commission in writing of that change;

(c) comply with the relevant provisions of The Radio and Telegraph Control Act and The Telecommunications Act.

(5) It shall be a term of every licence granted for subscriber television service, an independent programme provider, an independent programme provider (subscription only) or a subscriber television programme provider that the licensee shall -

(a) pay the prescribed licence fee to the Commission forthwith upon the grant of the licence and thereafter, while the licence continues in force, annually on or before each anniversary of such grant;

(b) forthwith upon any change in the nationality of or control by its members, notify the Minister in writing of that change.

(6) If a person who is granted a licence to provide subscriber television service does not provide that service within a period of six months from the grant of the licence or such longer period as the Minister may allow, the licence shall lapse and thereupon shall be rendered void.

(7) Where a licence is rendered void under subsection (6) the Commission shall so notify the licensee in writing and shall require the licensee to return the licence to the Commission within fourteen days after receipt of the notification.

(8) A licensee who fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (7) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a fine of ten thousand dollars for each day on which the licence is not returned to the Commission.

PART IIIC Appeals

11H. Appeals.

11H (1) Subject to subsection (1A), a person aggrieved by the decision of the Minister to refuse to under this Act may appeal to the Appeal Tribunal appointed by the Minister pursuant to subsection (3).

(a) grant or renew a licence;

(b) issue a certificate of registration,

(1A) No appeal shall lie to the Appeal Tribunal against the decision of the Minister to refuse to grant or renew a international relay service licence on the ground that such refusal is necessary in the national interest.

(2) An appeal shall lie from the Appeal Tribunal to the Court of Appeal on a point of law.

(3) The provisions of the Second Schedule shall have effect as to the constitution of the Appeal Tribunal and otherwise in relation thereto.

(4) The Minister may make rules prescribing procedures relating to appeals to the Appeal Tribunal.

PART IV The Broadcasting Commission

12. Establishment of the Broadcasting Commission.

12. (1) There shall be established for the purposes of this Act a body to be called the Broadcasting Commission.

(2) The Commission shall be a body corporate to which the provisions of section 28 of The Interpretation Act shall apply.

(3) The provisions of the First Schedule shall have effect with regard to the constitution of the Commission and otherwise in relation thereto.

13. Appointment of staff.

13. (1) The Commission may appoint and employ at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit a secretary, and such officers, agents and servants as it may consider necessary for the proper carrying out of its functions under this Act.

(2) The GovernorGeneral may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, approve of the appointment of any officer in the service of the Government to any office with the Commission, and any officer so appointed shall, during such appointment, in relation to pension, gratuity or other allowance, and to other rights as a public officer, be treated as continuing in the service of the Government.

14. Expenses of the Commission.

14. The expenses of the Commission (including remuneration of members and staff thereof) shall be defrayed out of sums provided from time to time for the purpose by Parliament and from fees paid pursuant to this Act.

15. Accounts and audit.

15. The Commission shall keep proper accounts of its transactions and such accounts shall be audited annually by an auditor to be approved by the Minister.

16. Functions of the Commission.

16. It shall be the duty of the Commission, with a view to the carrying out of the provisions and objects in this Act -

(a) to advise the Minister on any matter within its knowledge or on which the Minister may seek its advice, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, to advise in relation to -

(i) the terms and conditions on which licences may be granted; and

(ii) the allocation of time to broadcasting of programmes which are of Jamaican origin or performed by Jamaicans or which are particularly relevant or significant to Jamaica;

(b) to conduct, or cause to be conducted, surveys for the purpose of ascertaining the extent to which matter transmitted or relayed from any station operated by a licensee is being received, or is capable of being received, in any geographical area within Jamaica;

(c) to undertake, sponsor, or assist in research relating to any class or classes of operations which may be subject to control or regulation under this Act;

(d) to establish a system for monitoring transmissions by licensees -

(i) whether by the Commission with the aid of mechanical or electronic means, or by securing the services of persons for that purpose; or

(ii) by requiring licensees to keep tape recordings of their broadcasts and submit them to the Commission;

(e) to monitor the operations of licensees;

(f) to receive and investigate complaints in relation to any matter under this Act.

17. Power to require information from licensees.

17. The Commission may from time to time by notice in writing require from any licensee such information relating to the programmes and operations of that licensee as may be prescribed.

18. Advisory Committees.

18. The Commission may from time to time appoint such committees as it may consider appropriate to advise it on such matters relating to its functions as it may determine, and such committees may consist of as many persons, whether or not members of the Commission, as the Commission may determine.

19. Annual reports.

19. (1) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, submit to the Minister an annual report of its affairs and such report shall include -

(a) a report of the broadcasting performance of the licensee during the year in such detail as the Commission may decide or the Minister may require;

(b) a summary of the decisions of the Commission in regard to any matter or thing respecting which the Commission has acted during the year; and

(c) a report on such other matters as appear to the Commission to be of public interest in connection with broadcasting in the Island.

(2) As soon as may be after the receipt of such report, the Minister shall cause a copy to be laid upon the Table of the House of Representatives and of the Senate.

20. Contravention of licence.

20. (1) Where there is a contravention of any licence the Commission shall give to the licensee notice in writing -

(a) specifying particulars of such contravention; and

(b) requiring that licensee to justify its actions to the Commission or otherwise to take such remedial action as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Where the Commission gives any notice under subsection (1), the Commission shall send a copy of such notice to the Minister for his information.

(2A) Where the Commission gives notice under subsection (1) to the holder of a international relay service licence, the Commission shall send a copy of that notice to any person who provides broadcasting apparatus in order to facilitate the relay within Jamaica of non-commercial broadcasting by the licensee.

(3) Where a licensee fails to justify its actions to the satisfaction of the Commission or fails or refuses to take any remedial action specified in the notice issued under subsection (1) the Commission -

(a) shall notify the Minister in writing of the fact of such failure or refusal;

(b) may direct such licensee, where the Commission considers it appropriate, to broadcast or transmit an apology at such time and at such intervals as the Commission may determine.

21. Impartiality in political broadcasts.

21. (1) Where, under any broadcasting licence issued under this Act, time is allocated to the Government for broadcasts for reasons of emergency or in the national interest, such time shall not be used for broadcasting any matter which is likely, or intended -

(a) to solicit support for any political party or to promote the election of any individual or of any political party to any public or municipal office or to the House of Representatives; or

(b) to attack the policies, plans or programmes of any political party or parties.

(2) Where on any broadcasting station time is allocated to the Government or any political party for a broadcast which is used as mentioned in subsection (1) (a) or (1) (b), on terms whereby the time so allocated is free of charge or at a rate which is less than the normal commercial rate, equal time shall be allocated on that broadcasting station on similar terms to any political party which the Commission is satisfied is likely to be prejudicially affected by that broadcast.

(3) For the purpose of ensuring compliance with subsection (1) or subsection (2) the Commission shall investigate any allegation of non-compliance made not later than twentyone days after the date of the relevant broadcast and, if satisfied of the truth of the allegation, shall -

(a) if the allegation relates to subsection (1), direct -

(i) that equal time be afforded to such other political party or parties as may be approved by the Commission to reply to matters arising out of such broadcast; and

(ii) that any such reply is broadcast at such time, on such terms with regard to payment or otherwise and in such circumstances as are in the opinion of the Commission necessary to ensure that the reply is given exposure equivalent to that given to the broadcast which was the subject of the allegation;

(b) if the allegation relates to subsection (2), give such directions as it thinks appropriate to ensure compliance with that subsection.

(4) Where it is alleged that any broadcast contains information which is inaccurate the Commission shall, upon being required to do so by any person not later than twentyone days after the broadcast, investigate the allegation and, if satisfied as to the truth of the allegation -

(a) direct the licensee to broadcast -

(i) an apology; or

(ii) if the Commission thinks fit, a correction of the inaccuracy, in such form as the Commission may determine; or

(b) subject to subsection (5), direct the licensee to afford to any person prejudiced by the broadcast the opportunity of broadcasting a reply for the purpose of rebutting any information alleged to be inaccurate; or

(c) direct the licensee to do both (a) and (b) above.

(5) A direction pursuant to subsection (4) (b) shall be on such terms as the Commission may determine, so, however, that, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing -

(a) if, in the opinion of the Commission, the licensee did not exercise due care in ensuring the accuracy of the information where it was possible to do so, the broadcast in rebuttal shall be free of charge; and

(b) in any other case, the broadcast in rebuttal shall be on such terms as to payment to the licensee as the Commission may determine.

(6) For the purposes of this section "political party" means a political party which, at the time when the matter arises has five or more members in the House of Representatives or which had, immediately prior to the then last preceding dissolution of that House, five or more such members.

22. Penalty for failure to comply with directions.

22. (1) Where a licensee fails to comply with any directions given by the Commission under section 20 or 21, the Commission may -

(a) on the first occasion of such failure, recommend to the Minister that the licence be suspended for a period not exceeding three months; or

(b) if the failure occurs on any second or subsequent occasion, recommend to the Minister that the licence be suspended for such period as the Commission considers appropriate or cancelled.

(2) Before suspending or cancelling licence the Minister shall direct the Commission to notify the licensee accordingly and shall afford the licensee an opportunity to show cause why the licence should not be suspended or cancelled.

23. Regulations.

23. (1) The Commission may, after consultation with the Minister, make regulations generally for the better carrying out of the objects and purposes of this Act.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) shall be subject to negative resolution.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 29 of The Interpretation Act, regulations made under this section may prescribe greater penalties than those specified in the said section 29, so, however, that the maximum penalty that may be imposed shall be a fine of ten thousand dollars or imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding twelve months

(4) Where an offence against the regulations is committed by a body corporate then, notwithstanding and without prejudice to the liability of that body, any person who at the time of such commission was a director, general manager, secretary or other similar officer of that body, or was purporting to act in any such capacity, shall, be liable to be prosecuted as if he had personally committed that offence and shall be liable to the like conviction and punishment as if he had personally been guilty of that offence unless the Court finds on a balance of probability that -

(a) the contravention was committed without his consent or connivance; and

(b) he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all the circumstances.

(5) In this section and in section 21, "broadcasting" includes broadcasting over a radio re-diffusion system.
