Broadcasting Commission Deeply Saddened by Death of Veteran Broadcaster and News Anchor Dorraine Samuels

The Broadcasting Commission is deeply saddened to learn of the passing of veteran broadcaster and news anchor Dorraine Samuels. For close to 40 years, Dorraine was a gold standard for broadcasting in Jamaica. The clarity, warmth and ease with which she communicated has left an indelible mark, and will serve as a template for aspiring broadcasters.

The Broadcasting Commission extends condolences to her family, the RJRGleaner Communications Group and colleagues in the broadcasting sector.
